A BEAUTY THAT IS FAR MORE THAN SKIN DEEP

Editorial DCJ

There are so many automatic things in our busy life that become forgotten miracles. For example, breathing is controlled by the automatic section of the brain, fortunately, because we would never dare to sleep if it were not. The beautiful stretch of river on our cover is passed by thousands of motorists every day, yet probably not many glance at it, such is the pace of travel and the need to keep your eyes on the road. So, except for the people who live on its banks, our river is for the most part a forgotten and automatic thing exactly as is the breathing reflex.

The similarity does not end there. Our river is the most important resource that the town has access to. Without water, how long could anyone live? Maybe a week longer than anyone could live without breath. It is so very important that life would be diminished beyond belief with the simple lack of running water in the home. Suppose we had to run out to the well, suppose we even had to pump our water at the kitchen sink, just as our grandparents might have - it simply would be

With these things in mind, the forgotten river revealed in all of its beauty and bounty we will be considering very soon the creation of a special area bounding the river valley and designed to protect it. This whole area is so important to our future as well as our present that we urge that everyone give this protection deep and favorable thought. We do think that it is time for such action and commend all the town officials who recognized the need and worked out the plan known as the Mattapoissett River Aquifer District which will be presented by the Mattapoissett Planning Board to the Town Meeting to be held on March 26th.

Sen. Wall at Meeting

MATTAPOISETT SELECTMEN'S MEETING
 FEBRUARY 19, 1991-by VIRGINIA MORGAN

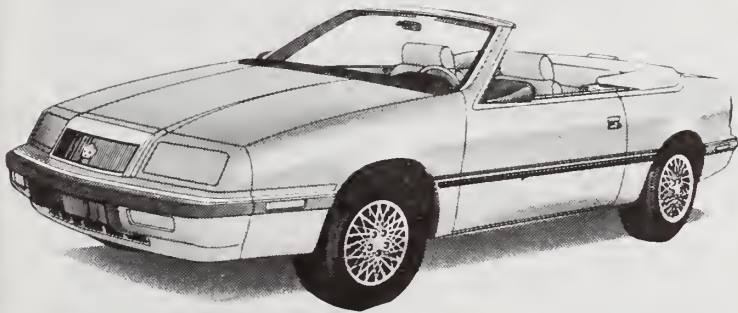

State Senator Erving H. Wall, Jr. (R-Taunton) paid his first visit to the Board of Selectmen last Tuesday since being elected last November. He was accompanied by his associate, Roger Hoffmann.

"Basically", the senator said, "the concerns of all the towns in my district are the same - local aid." He said he hasn't changed from his stand when running for the office: supporting Question 3 state tax rollback, so-called CLT and Question 5, guaranteed local aid of 40 percent. "Mattapoissett is not in for the total cut", he noted. "Rural towns get belted because of the old formula; the new formula should help the smaller towns. There may have to be some modification in the funds allocated for regional school districts which were not included in question 5 on the November ballot. As it now stands with the new formula, the school districts will have to receive their funds through the towns."

The senator said in Massachusetts the average part of the school budget for special education is 17.2 percent; nationwide the average is 11 percent. "Does this say Massachusetts does more or that the nation does less for special education?" There may be room for some relaxation of mandates under Chapter 766 (the special education state law).

Selectman Bernard F. Talty expressed his opinion there may be room for cuts in the management layers of the human services budget. He noted he has seen personally the good work the hands-on workers do in the human services department of the state.

Senator Wall said he has been busy learning "the ropes" and getting to know the towns in his district. He said the Dukakis administration said there was a $100 million deficit; Governor Weld says there is a $850 million deficit and will have to make cuts accordingly. "We are hoping the deficit is more like $700 million and if it is anything less, we hope it will come back to the towns."

Selectmen Chairman John DeCosta explained Mattapoisett's local aid has been cut 23 percent in the past three years and cutting more each year. "We appreciate anything you can do and all the support you can give us." Mr. DeCosta added that the town's health costs have gone up 25 percent in the same period of time.

The senator explained he has been placed on the Natural Resources Committee and has worked on environmental and legislative issues, but "it would be presumptuous of me to make any statements until I have more experience."

Senator Wall said he is a native of Plymouth and was formerly a sales engineer with W.R. Grace. He served in the U.S. Navy for four years and 16 in the Naval Reserve.

In commenting on another state program which he termed "puzzling", Senator Wall noted the matching funds program should not be a criteria unless the program has some use. The state gets involved in matching funds and some should be looked into.

He added that Mattapoisett's housing funds for construction of Village Court

In other business, Selectmen:

AWARDED A CONTRACT to Athol Press, Inc. of Athol to furnish 2,600 copies of the warrant for the May 4th annual town meeting and 2,000 copies of the 1990 annual town report. Their low bid out of six bidders also included a cost of $3. each for half-tone pictures for the report.

With $3,690 for the reports and $1,068 for the warrants for a total of $4,758 there will be additional costs for pictures and about $500. for postage to mail the warrants. Voters approved $9,000 for the printing.

Executive Secretary Carol Adams noted these six bidders are the most they have had for a job in a long time. She noted she had consulted with the executive secretary of Chelmsford who has used the Athol Press on several occasions and has been pleased with the job they did.

to the three towns. Mattapoisett's share will be $1,988,637.62, up from $1,795,194 from fiscal 1991. Selectmen noted this increase of about $200,000 is up 10 percent and is based on the number of students Mattapoisett had as of September 1, 1990 in the system.

RECEIVED A LETTER from Gregory A. Russo of Hudson in regards to the parking permits at the town wharf. "During the past 10 years", Mr. Russo wrote, "I have gone from non-resident to property owner to non-resident and I presently keep a mooring in the harbor and rely on access from the wharf. This year, since I presently do not own property in town, I will be without a parking permit."

Selectmen stressed the regulation states a person has to be a town resident to have a parking permit; however, there are several areas for parking for non-residents.

RECEIVED A SECOND LETTER from Linda J. Couto of 14 Main Street, a member of the town's Rescue Squad since February 1990 and recently Rochester's Fire Department EMT, informing selectmen of the Life Flight Helicopter services available to Mattapoisett.

She wrote, saying "I have researched the subject further and have discovered that neither Life Flight nor Med Flight have any record of Mattapoisett on file, and presently have no pre-designated landing area in place

She said she wrote to Police Lt. James A. Santos, who is in charge of the EMT services, regarding these emergency flights. She offered to organize a training session with Life Flight or Med Flight.

Lt. Santos informed selectmen Mattapoissett is covered with Emergency Flight Service through St. Luke's Hospital and is tied in with their joint program with the Paramedics at St. Luke's Hospital. Mattapoissett has three possible landing sites for emergency helicopter pick-ups: Ned's Point Lighthouse, the ORR field, and the new police station. In addition, Selectman DeCosta said New Bedford has as its main pick-up site Buttonwood Park. "We are covered and serviced and can use the Buttonwood site in an emergency", he added.

In the days before movies, television, VCRs and Nintendo, families amused themselves by playing various kinds of games which came to be known as Parlour Games.

Joan Hartnett-Barry of Marion has been doing research into the history of this activity and will present the program for us. You will have the opportunity to play some of the games as well as learn some of the

SWITCH TO GLASS!

It makes sense to use materials that can save money, be reused and at the same time support environment concerns.

A study was done at Bowling Green State U. In order to meet its 25% waste reduction goal by a certain date, the U switched to glassware (from paperware) in the dining facilities which served 14,000 students daily.

Not only did the U. reach its environmental goal but in so doing saved $32,251 during the first year (including cost of water and detergent for washing the glassware). Another result! Switching to glass saved 1,150,000 paper cups - equaling 26,450 pounds of garbage that otherwise

Congregational Church MATTAPOISETT

It is quite easy to look at the Ten Commandments and conclude that we fulfill them. It is easy to see sin outside the walls of the church, as our secular society appears to live by fleeting principles. It is a lot harder to look within our church, and see the way we have domesticated the God of Mt. Sinai. As a worshipping body we need to see our religious sins.

The title of the sermon this Sunday at the Mattapoissett Congregational Church will be "When Jesus Barged In". Our service begins at 10:00 a.m. and all are welcome.

CHURCH ANNUAL MEETING

At the recent Annual Meeting of the Mattapoissett Congregational Church the congregation voted the following resolution:

Be it resolved: That we, as a church, support all service personnel who are serving in the Middle East with our fervent prayers; be it further resolved: That we support a solution that results in everlasting peace.

Seeking Visiting Artists

March has been designated by the Massachusetts Art Education Association as "Youth Art Month". This is the fourth annual celebration of the month at Center School in Mattapoisett.

A major part of the celebration will be the visitation of artists, during art class time, to discuss and demonstrate their area(s) of expertise. Funding to compensate the artists for their time has been provided by the Mattapoisett Parent Teachers' Club, and by the Massachusetts Arts Lottery Council, as administered by the Mattapoisett Arts Lottery Council.

Visiting artists in the past have included
those specializing in oil paints, watercolors, silk screening, stained glass, tempera,
wood carving, wood burning, and painting
on wood. Repeat visiting artists are certainly welcome, as are newcomers. We know there is a lot of talent out there, and we also know that the rewards of sharing

...has been chosen as a symbol of hope for cancer patients around the world each year.

During these cold months, daffodils are sold to raise money for the American Cancer Society's threefold program of research, education and service to local cancer patients. According to Anita Cornell Brown and Muriel Foster, Co-Chairs, "Volunteers are taking orders now for your daffodils which will be distributed during the week of March 20th. The deadline for ordering is March 6th." So, don't hesitate. A $4. donation will get you a bunch of 10 daffodils sure to brighten your home, office or spirits. A $200 donation will get you a box of 500 daffodils.

The beauty of the flowers brings joy and a glimpse of spring to everyone. The flowers also remind us of our hope for a world free of cancer.

For more information please feel free to call your local American Cancer Society office at 996-6262.

Men Who Cook

"One of the culinary delights of southeastern Massachusetts of the entire year" is how Stephen Bender of Mattapoisett describes "Men Who Cook". He ought to know. This is his fourth year of cooking at the New Bedford Women's Center's annual fundraiser.

This year he will join over 200 other men as they prepare a sumptuous buffet of ethnic delights. Dishes include Scampi Surprise with spinach fettucine, Jamaican red pea soup with dumplings, orange chocolate cheese cake with mocha cream frosting, Polish stuffed cabbage rolls, Manchupa Kugilis.

And what is Stephen Bender preparing? Why, "Lumpy's Famous Chowdah", of course. What else would you expect from a man who owns and operates Lumpy's Seafood Catering Business during the summer months in Mattapoisett. According to Stephen, the recipe for this secret quahog chowder has been handed down in his family for three generations. When his partner, Robert Marchand (who Bender describes as "a notorious couch potato") was expecting his first child, the name for Bela Bartok Conservatory, is a well-known figure on the Boston jazz scene. His music combines classical compositional and harmonic elements, improvisational jazz, and folk melodies and rhythms of Africa, the Middle East, Europe and India.

Gardony's most recent album, "The Legend of Tsumi" (Antilles, 1989), is a reflection of his interest in classical and folk forms. Its unusual meters and odd harmonies result in melodies which juxtapose rocking rhythms with contemplative phrases.

"We tried to go with the natural logic of the melody", Gardony says.

Opening the festival at 7 p.m. March 4th will be a free intercollegiate jazz concert in the Campus Center Auditorium, featuring jazz bands from SMU, Westfield State College, Bridgewater State College, the University of Rhode Island, Rhode Island College, Providence College, Community College of Rhode Island, and Cape Cod Community College.

Ceramics and Redware Lecture

Brian Cullity, the Curator of the Art Museum at Heritage Plantation, will hold a two-part lecture on ceramics. "Introducing Ceramics" will be held on March 6th; then on March 13th, Mr. Cullity will present a class on "American Redware". Both classes will be held in the Theatre of the Round Barn on Wednesdays from 10:00 to 11:30 a.m.

The first class will examine ceramics that were made in the United States from the eighteenth through the twentieth century. The primary emphasis will be on identification of the various types of pottery including redware, stoneware, porcelain, art pottery, sewer-tile pottery and Rockingham type pottery. Additionally, many of the ceramics made for export to this country in the last century will also be examined. These ware include Staffordshire, soft-paste, Liverpool, yellowware and some oriental export pieces. The emphasis, however, will be on western trade.

and methods of production will be some of the topics that will be discussed. A wide variety of examples will be available for examination.

The second class on the following Wednesday will examine American redware of the eighteenth, nineteenth and twentieth centuries. This introductory session will preview many of the pieces that will be on exhibit at Heritage Plantation during the 1991 season and cover a wide range of information about redware in general.

Comparisons with other traditional American pottery of the nineteenth century will be offered and enable the novice to make distinctions between redware and other ceramics. A number of actual pieces will be on view including some contemporary pieces. Participants are encouraged to bring in examples for identification and discussion. Classes are limited to 15, but will be repeated in the summer if warranted by demand. The cost for the two-part lecture is $15.00 for members of Heritage Plantation and $20.00 for non-members. To register please call the Education Department at 888-3300, extension 22.

Q. What should I get for my money when I have my eyes examined?

A. You should get tests to determine how well you see at far and near distances; whether or not vision problems like nearsightedness, farsightedness or astigmatism are hampering your ability to see; how well your eyes work together as a team; and how well you can change focus from near to far and vice versa.

You should also get eye health tests, including one for glaucoma, if you are over 35 or have a family history of this disease. The optometrist also can detect signs in the eyes of general health problems like high blood pressure and diabetes.

There may be other tests, depending upon the results of the basic examination.

Expect all this to take from 30 to 60 minutes and be prepared to discuss your general health history.
